"THE TANGLED WEB"

Marriage stripped of remance is really only a civil contract. Unlike other evil contracts it does not end when one party violates it or when i is brought about by fraud. Redress can be secured only by a Court action. The non-loyal view of marriage is vividly presented in "The Tangled Web", one of the tremendously start-ling "Who's Guilty?" to be shown at the Pastime today. Heinie and Louis in a reel of fun. A Pathe scene travel picture in colors and Pathe's Weekly completes an excellent program.

BIG FEATURE AT THE GEN TODAY

terpiece. The story features Irene ond game was also won by the locals. Femwick and is filmed from the stage play of that name by Owen Davis and Henry K. Webster. Miss Fenwick does some extraordinary work in the role of Ruth McAllister, a girl accused of the murder of her husband. The entire film sparkles with dramatic situations and tense moments. It will be seen at the Gem theater today. Also Charlie Chaplin in the two-reel feature "Work."

GOOD INTENTION NO. 1

Intentions never made any one rich. You opened an account here some time ago-didn't you? You are one of our depositors. Perhaps you live right here in town. Perhaps you are a depositor living at some one of the Post Offices from which we receive deposits. Then you stopped. You intended to keep it up-you intend to do so in the future. If you are going to pin your faith on that word INTEND you will live a life that will have nothing to show for it at the end -except bitter regrets. It is not yet too late to blot that word INTEND from the Dictionary of your Life and to write over it the word NOW.
